

Look at all of the different types of objects in the Landscapes and Lives gallery. They are all made of different things - different materials. Can you draw examples of objects that match the descriptions below? Try to find out the names of different materials.

Find something...

shiny

soft

strong

heavy

rough

smooth

prickly

weak

During the Stone Age people first began to regularly use stone to make things like tools. Why do you think they thought stone was a good material to use for this job?

Can you name some other types of materials you found in the gallery?